3. Student leaders have no authority (disciplinary or otherwise) beyond that of other students.
4. Student leaders can be relieved of their duties if they fail in these regards.

1. Submission of application. Applications are due by Tuesday, April 23rd. Incomplete or late applications will not be accepted or considered. Application includes:
 - Resume that highlights leadership roles and experiences.
 - A one-page essay listing greatest personal strengths and areas in which the organization could improve (and how you would improve them).
 - A written record (questions and answers) of two formal interviews with reputable band alumni, school faculty, or school administrator. Interviews should include their views on leadership, what you learned from the interview, and how their view is different than yours.
 - Completion of service project.
2. Potential formal interview with staff. Submission of application does not guarantee an interview. Staff will review all applications and select students for interviews. Interviews are tentatively scheduled to begin Wednesday, May 1st.
3. Candidates for student leader positions are selected at the conclusion of drum major auditions (results tentatively set for Wednesday, May 22nd). Candidates will perform student leader duties throughout the summer and during pre-band.

Student Leadership Application

General Information

Thank you for your interest in being part of the Trojan Pride Student Leadership Team. We hope you will find the application process to be interesting and enriching, regardless of the outcome. The application represents a standard method of selecting student leaders for the last few years. If you have any questions about the process or your application, please do not hesitate to ask. Good luck and work hard to accurately represent yourself through the process.

Your candidacy will be judged of the following criteria:

1. Past performance.
2. Quality of your application.
3. Future leadership potential.
4. Best fit for the individual, team, and organization.

When completing the application, be thorough, complete, creative, and honest. Don't say what you think your directors might want to hear. Say what you really think. Leaders are people who can offer something new and different to the organization when needed. This application process is structured so that you can gain insights into yourself as a person, so be honest and thorough. You need to show the person that you truly are and what you aspire to be. Whether you are chosen to serve on the STL team is not the only point. Dig deep inside, answer the questions, and complete the service project with the intent of learning something new.

Applications must be completed and all elements turned in by Tuesday, April 23rd, 4:15 PM. Be prompt and professional with your application. A submitted application does not guarantee an interview. An interview schedule will be available after the staff has had time to review submitted applications.

Please make sure that all elements are enclosed in one package and are clearly labeled with your name. Any elements of your application that you would like returned need to be clearly labeled as such. All applications must be typed or clearly legible. Failure to do so will result in the return of the application to the applicant.
